

Save the Date

April 16, 2026

Ohio Partners in Amphibian and Reptile Conservation

8th Annual Meeting

Cincinnati Zoo, Cincinnati, OH

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Mark Jordan

is Professor of Biology at Purdue University Fort Wayne. His current research aims at understanding the distribution and viability of populations of turtles to help recover and sustain vulnerable species. The keynote will focus on conservation genetic measures of the status of Blanding's Turtle and Spotted Turtle in Ohio and beyond.

MORE DETAILS AND REGISTRATION COMING SOON!

OHPARC.ORG